

A Guide to the Danish Demographical Database

The steps to finding your family in the indexed censuses on DDD:

1. Begin by going to the website:
www.ddd.dda.dk
2. Once at the website, click on the link “Folketællinger.”

3. On the new page will appear several new links. You will want to choose either the “Simpel søgning” link (simple search) or the “Avanceret søgning – områdeforslag,” link (Advanced search – area suggestion)

Simple Search:

4. Bopælsoplysninger:

First choose the jurisdiction you are searching. You must select at least a county by using the “Amt” dropdown box. You can also choose the “Herred,” or court district, and/or the “Sogn,” or parish.

5. Personoplysninger:

This next section is where you can fill out the personal information about your ancestor. Enter the ancestor’s name in the “Navn” box.

You can also narrow down what census year you search by using the “FTår” dropdown box.

6. Once you have filled in all of your information click on the button “Søg,” or search. All of the search results will appear beneath the search button.

7. Search for your ancestor among the results. Once you find him or her, click on the button “Vis husstand,” or show household. A new window should appear with the information about the family.

Advanced Search:

8. Advanced search is nearly the same as Simple search. The only difference is extra information boxes under Personoplysninger. See the image for the different possibilities.

Tip: You can use the Danish wildcard '%' to search for spelling variations. For example, if you enter in 'Pe%er' you will get Peter, Peder, Petter, etc.
